TO THE LOVE OF MY LIFE

To the Love of My Life

Our journey began unexpectedly, and I never imagined you would become my companion, my love, and an integral part of my life. From the moment I saw you through my camera's lens, I was captivated, and I couldn't explain what was happening to me. My life seemed to take on new meaning, and I knew you were the missing piece. I wanted to see you by my side, not just for now but for all the tomorrows to come.

Slowly, I realized that your presence brings me incredible joy. It's a feeling I can't quite put into words – my heart races when I see you, and I yearn to be with you and share every moment. Yet, sometimes I couldn't find the right words or actions; I was overwhelmed by the depth of my emotions. Whenever I saw you, my mind would go blank, and I felt lost.

Then I understood what was happening within me. Before we crossed paths, there was a version of me who had never experienced such feelings. Meeting you changed everything. You were the first person I truly fell for love. But my anxieties and hesitations held me back. I wasn't sure how to express my feelings, and I was afraid of pushing you away.

But you, my Shifu, you sensed the connection between us, and you felt it too. You were brave enough to initiate the conversation about our feelings. I couldn't have asked for more. I would have never confessed my love, fearing it might drive you away. That was something I couldn't bear to risk.

Shifu, I want to thank you for choosing me, for meeting me, and for accepting me despite knowing all there is to know about me. When I look back on those golden days when we first met, I feel butterflies in my stomach. I cherish those memories when we were together.

Now, we're engaged, and I know that even if I searched for thousands of years, I would never find a partner like you. I am deeply grateful for you, Shifu, and my love for you grows stronger every day.

Every day with you feels like a dream, and today, on your birthday, I want to make it even more special. You've brought love, laughter, and happiness into my life, and I feel truly blessed to have you by my side. I cherish every moment we've shared and eagerly anticipate the beautiful memories we'll create together in the years to come.

As we celebrate your special day, I can't help but feel grateful for the life we're building together. You are my heart's greatest treasure, and my love for you continues to deepen with each passing day.

On your birthday and every day, I promise to be there, loving you more than ever.

Happy Birthday

My Forever Love, My Life

"With all my love and a pocketful of kisses, I wish you the happiest of birthdays."
